

Amsterdam is home to the most wish-listed hostel in the world

Hostelworld reveals the most wish-listed hostels in the world

- ClinkNOORD in The Netherlands claims the top spot as the most desirable hostel
- Hostels in Bali, London and Sydney were among the top three in the world
- South East Asia dominates the list as the most wanderlusted region

London, 29 July 2020: Whilst they've been stuck at home backpackers have eagerly been searching and saving hostels to their wish-lists for their future trips. Online booking platform, Hostelworld, reveals the most wish-listed hostels in the world over the last three months.

Backpackers are eager to reclaim their passion for travel, and a recent poll has revealed they will be among the first to do so as 48% plan to travel in the first 60 days after restrictions ease¹. Daring to brave the new normal, 7 in 10 are planning on travelling internationally as soon as they can.

The ranking reveals the most desirable destinations for young hostel-travellers haven't changed much with Europe, Asia and Australia ranking highly.

1. ClinkNoord, Amsterdam
2. Puri Garden Hostel & Hotel, Bali
3. Wombat's City Hostel, London
4. Kuna Bali, Bali
5. Wake Up Sydney Central, Sydney
