

Waves of revellers to descend on Boardmasters 2016 – best bed and Board options for Cornwall festival revealed!

- Fed up with sleeping bags? Cornish hostel gems revealed
- Tickets and rooms available for last-minute alternative August getaway

Sun, sea and sand... plus surfing, skating and smooth sounds – waves of revellers are set to descend on Cornwall next month for Boardmasters 2016. Yet with thousands scrambling to organise camping gear, bed and board options may be the secret to a mastering the experience.

The unmissable Boardmasters, the UK's biggest surf, skate and music festival, is set to take place between 10th and 14th August. This growing event is an underrated gem on the UK's festival calendar.

For the many who value a bed rather than a bag to sleep in, hostels in the area have their doors open to provide comfy accommodation and the social space to make the festival a great one. With festival tickets still available, booking a hostel could make all the difference.

For those seeking the social feel that comes with festivals and wanting to avoid tent fever, Hostelworld has selected five amazing hostels that will ensure you get the best out of this epic Cornish party.

St Christopher's Inn Newquay

St. Christopher's Inn occupies a stunning clifftop location in Newquay overlooking Towan Bay. The on-site Belushi's bar and restaurant is one of the most popular places in town and as a hostel guest you can enjoy a few scoops at a special 10% discount. We can't think of a better way to mingle with fellow music lovers and reminisce over the days performances. There is a variety of accommodation on offer including private double rooms, dormitories and of course, the female-only Oasis. Most of the rooms also boast sea views and en-suite bathrooms.

MOR Lodge

MOR Lodge is a backpacker's paradise with a large sun terrace and breathtaking ocean views. Nestled in the heart of Newquay, guests can take a break from the festivities and enjoy the hostel's large bar and games room. MOR Lodge has something to suit any festival-goers needs and offers a variety of private en-suite single, twin, double and bunk style rooms. The complimentary breakfast will be all the festival fuel you need to get your day off to a great start.

Base Surf Lodge

Base Surf Lodge is a home away from home and offers comfortable dorm-style accommodation in rooms of two, four or six. Instagram addicts will be ecstatic with the panoramic views of Boardmasters hotspot Fistral beach. Base is a great option for those looking to recharge and chill out after a day of revelling.

Newquay International Backpackers

‘Come as a guest, leave as a friend’ is the mantra of this hostel so be prepared to hit Newquay’s nearby night scene with your new mates and enjoy Cornish hospitality at its best. Festival-goers will welcome the comfort of a hot shower and steam room after a busy day of beach sessions and festivities. Accommodation on offer includes comfortable three, four and six-bed dorms, twin bunk rooms and en-suite doubles.

The Escape

Escape Surf Lodge is a friendly and lively place to stay. The in-house Thai restaurant called 'The Bird' and retro style bar with state of the art Bose sound system and pool table mean the party can continue into the small hours. Guests can enjoy a delicious breakfast and Lavazza coffee that will cure the hangover and have you festival fit. Accommodation consists of various room sizes in bunk style, most with en-suite bathroom.
